The 1970 Shorecrest football team can be proud of its season. In pre-season polls the team was picked to finish in the middle of the North Division. Yet, through hard work and determination, the team showed its true potential and finished with a 7-2 record and a third place in the overall Metro standing.

This year's team was led by many individual stars—three All-Metro—yet, it was the pride, unity, courage, and dedication of each individual member of the squad that provided the keys to the success of the season.

Wing Foot rambles on

An expression of a winning thought is part of a winning team.

Leland leading the pack

This year's X-Country team finished 2nd in the North, 2nd in Metro, and 12th in state. In dual meet competition, Shorecrest lost only one meet and had three perfect scores. The team will surely be remembered for its fine talent, but more important is the great attitude and sportsmanship displayed on and off the field, both in winning and defeat.

Wrestling '71

There is a time for thought and a time for cheer.

2nd in Metro

The 1970-71 Wrestling Team experienced a reasonably successful season attaining twelve victories and one loss. The Varsity Team, composed predominately of seniors, were given leadership and inspiration by the spirit, dedication and intestinal fortitude of outstanding individuals in Pat McDonald, Steve Cash, Marvin Kvamme and Bob Russell.

The performances of this year's sophomore and junior squad members were nothing less than outstanding. There were numerous occasions when a Junior or Sophomore member of the squad performed like a seasoned veteran in a Varsity meet, thereby, adding great depth to the Varsity squad. The experience gained by these various sophomore and junior members will be extremely valuable to the 1971-1972 Wrestling Squad, which will boast twelve returning Varsity lettermen — four juniors and eight sophomores.

Basketball '71

J.V. and assistant coach Gary Snyder

Shorecrest's 1970-71 basketball team distinguished itself as the highest scoring team in the Metro League. They played exciting basketball, often with sick or injured players. Their never-give-up spirit saw them often come from behind for either a thrilling victory or a heartbreaking narrow defeat. May you continue to never give up and may you always be victorious. PRIDE.

1971 BASEBALL

With the advent of Metro's new nineteen game schedule, the 1971 baseball team embarks in defense of its 1970 championship. Limited by only two starters returning from last year but rich in young talent, all of us are optimistically and anxiously looking forward to the season ahead! This is truly a talented, perseverent and resourceful group of young men who are dedicated to the goal of repeating 1970. We all can be proud of this year's team in every respect. As their coach, I am extremely proud of them and will forever cherish the few times we have had together!

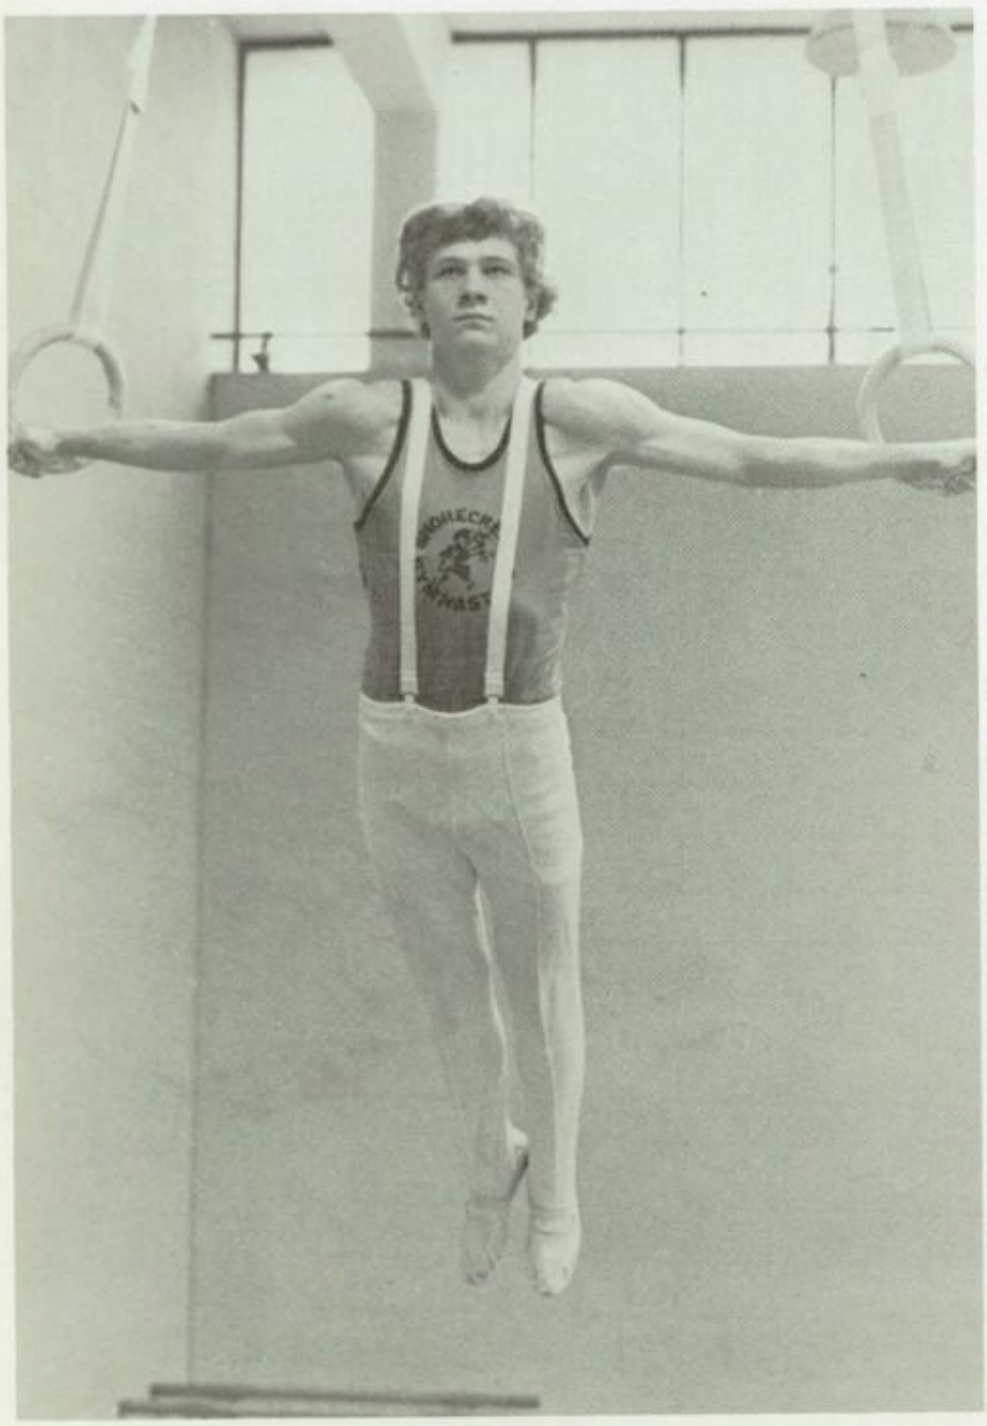
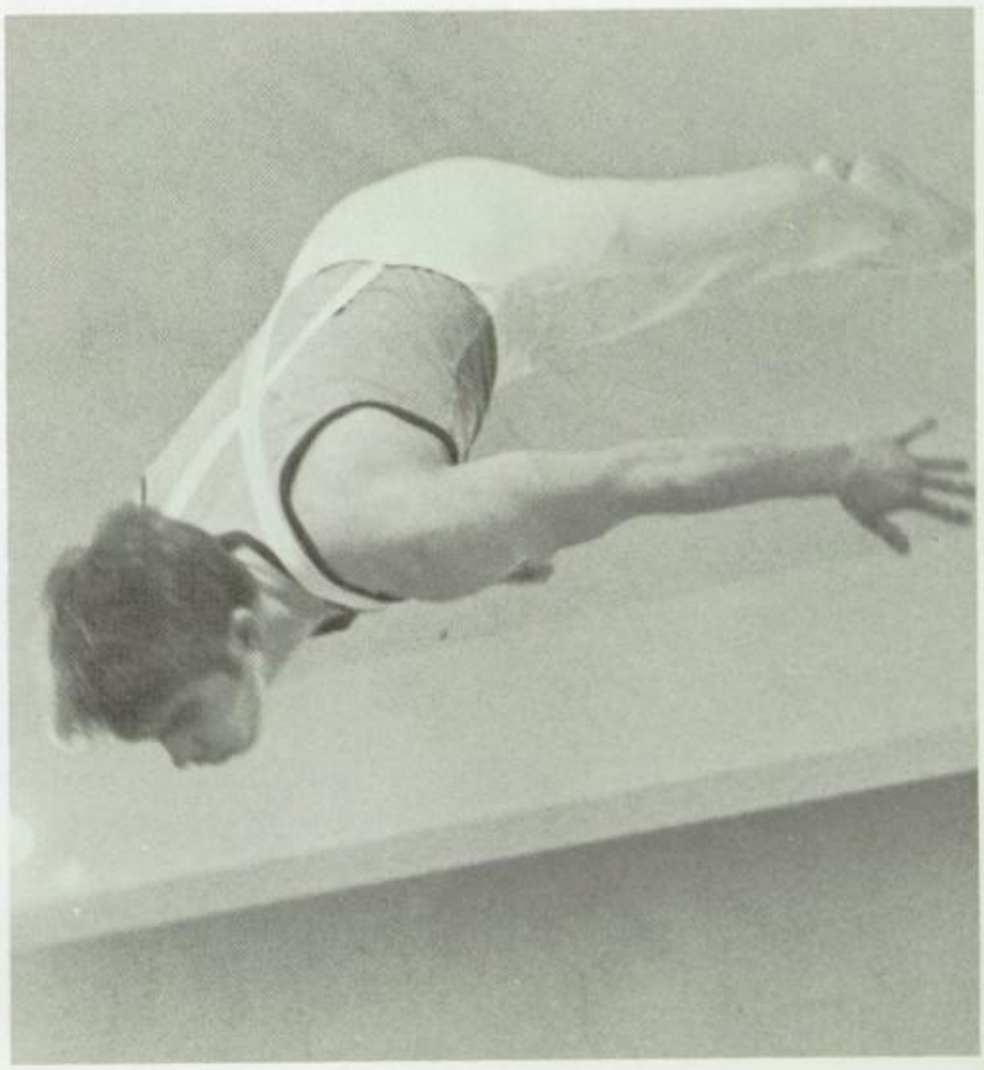
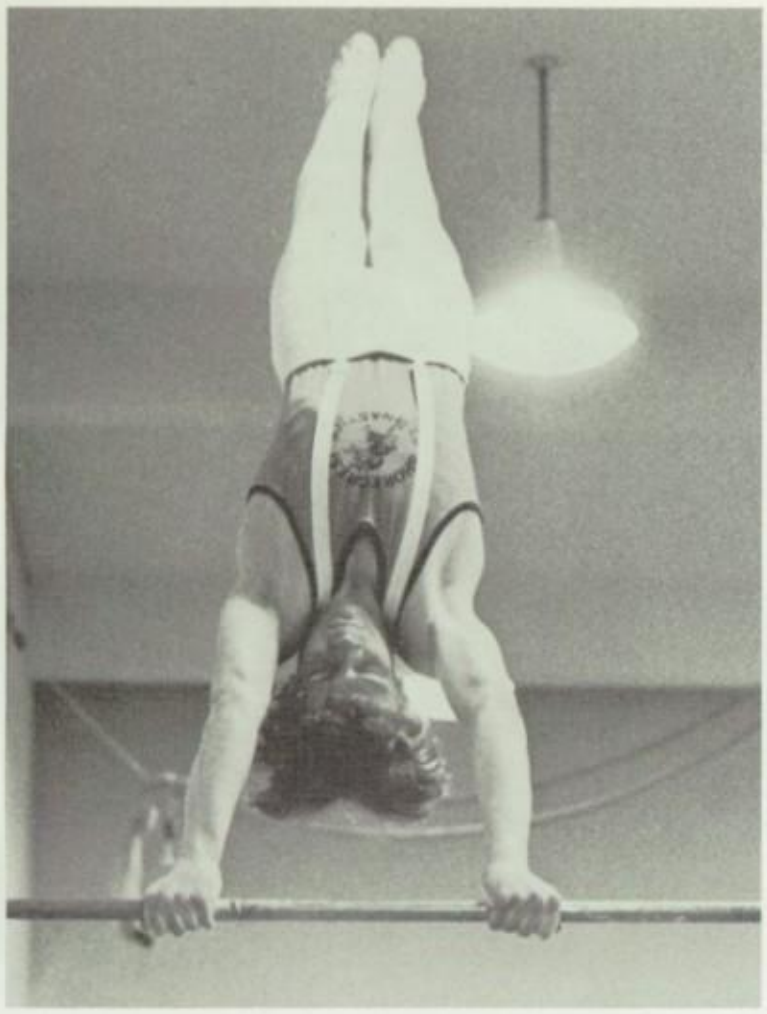
Gymnastics







With seven returning lettermen Shorecrest is once again one of the leading teams in Metro. Outstanding Senior Dave Elverum will be leading his team to a possible first place in the league and honors in State competition. There are strong team members at both the junior and senior levels, with some top sophomores to insure the team of continued future success.

Tennis

Practices are trying on both body and mind as the Shorecrest tennis team perfects their game. Though it's much of an individual sport, there is a very big team understanding. No matter the outcome, the Shorecrest tennis team carries on the Highlander tradition. At the same time, it prepares each individual player just a little more for life.

Robert Hardy had a dream, and in that dream he thought he was to live only seven days. If you had only seven days to live, how would you live them? How did Robert Hardy begin? He began to study. He began to get ready. Did all in his power each day. He came to the seventh day, and he came near the end of his day. But all at once, it was made known to him that he wasn't to die. He looked around and was glad, but he said, "Some seven days will be my last seven," and he lived every day as though he were in his last. You will be in your last seven days soon, and may even be there now.—Scoville

"Growing a little older is suddenly standing a little still; then forward again, with something learned."

Seniors

This is not the end.
Nor is it the beginning of the end.
It is merely end of the beginning.

—Churchill

Isn't it strange that princes and kings
And clowns that caper in sawdust rings
And common folks like you and me
Are builders for eternity?

To each is given a bag of tools
A shapeless mass, and a book of rules,
And each must make ere life is flown,
A stumbling block or a stepping stone.
—Author Unknown

If we are to enjoy life,
now
is the time
—not tomorrow
not next year,
nor in some future life
after we have died.
The best preparation
for a better life next year
is a full,
complete,
Harmonious,
joyous life this year.
Our beliefs
in a rich future life
are of little importance unless we coin them
into a rich
present life.
Today
should always be our most wonderful day.

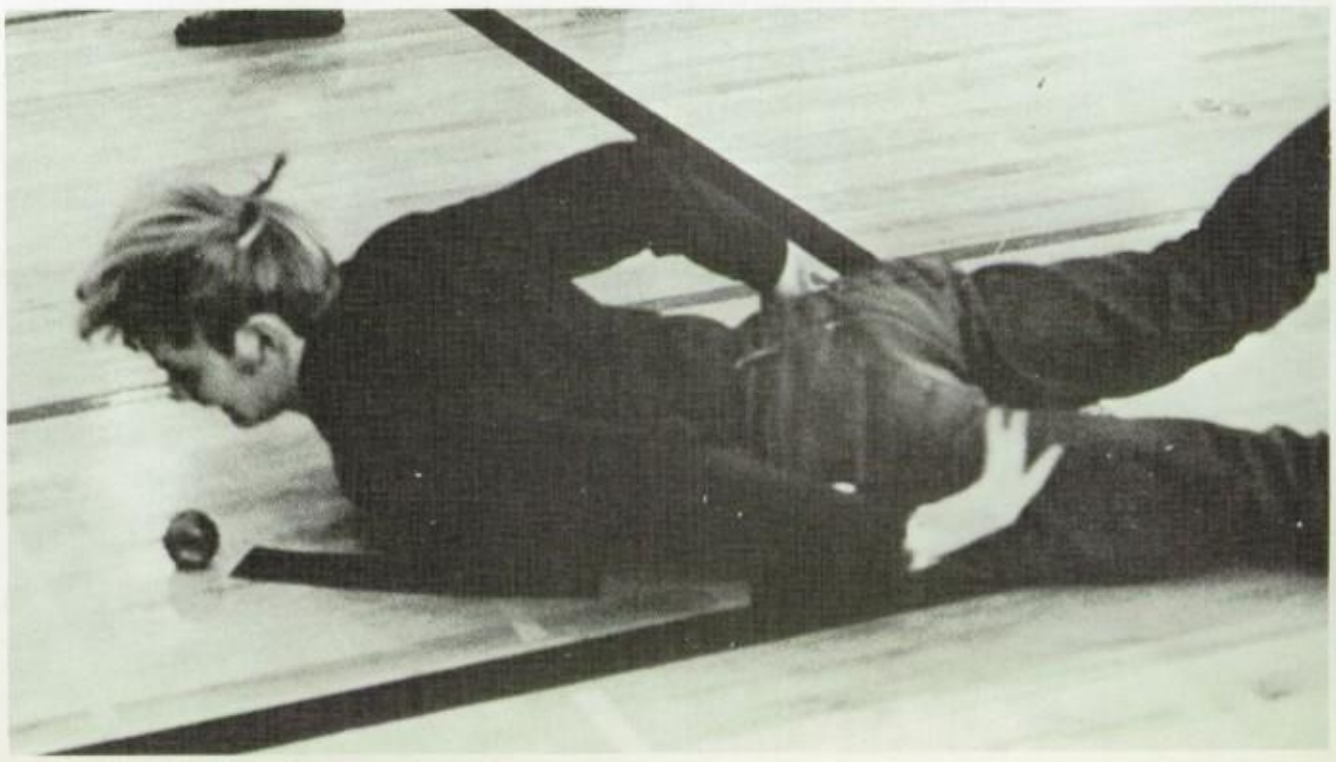
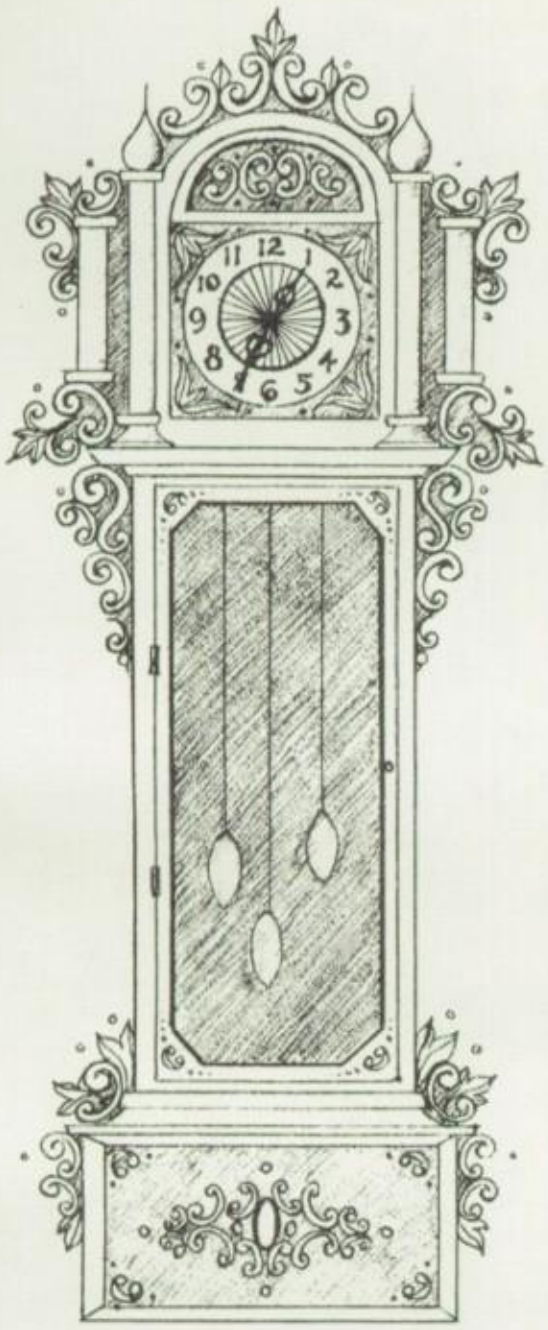
—Thomas Dreier





And know that yesterday is but today's memory
and tomorrow is today's dream.

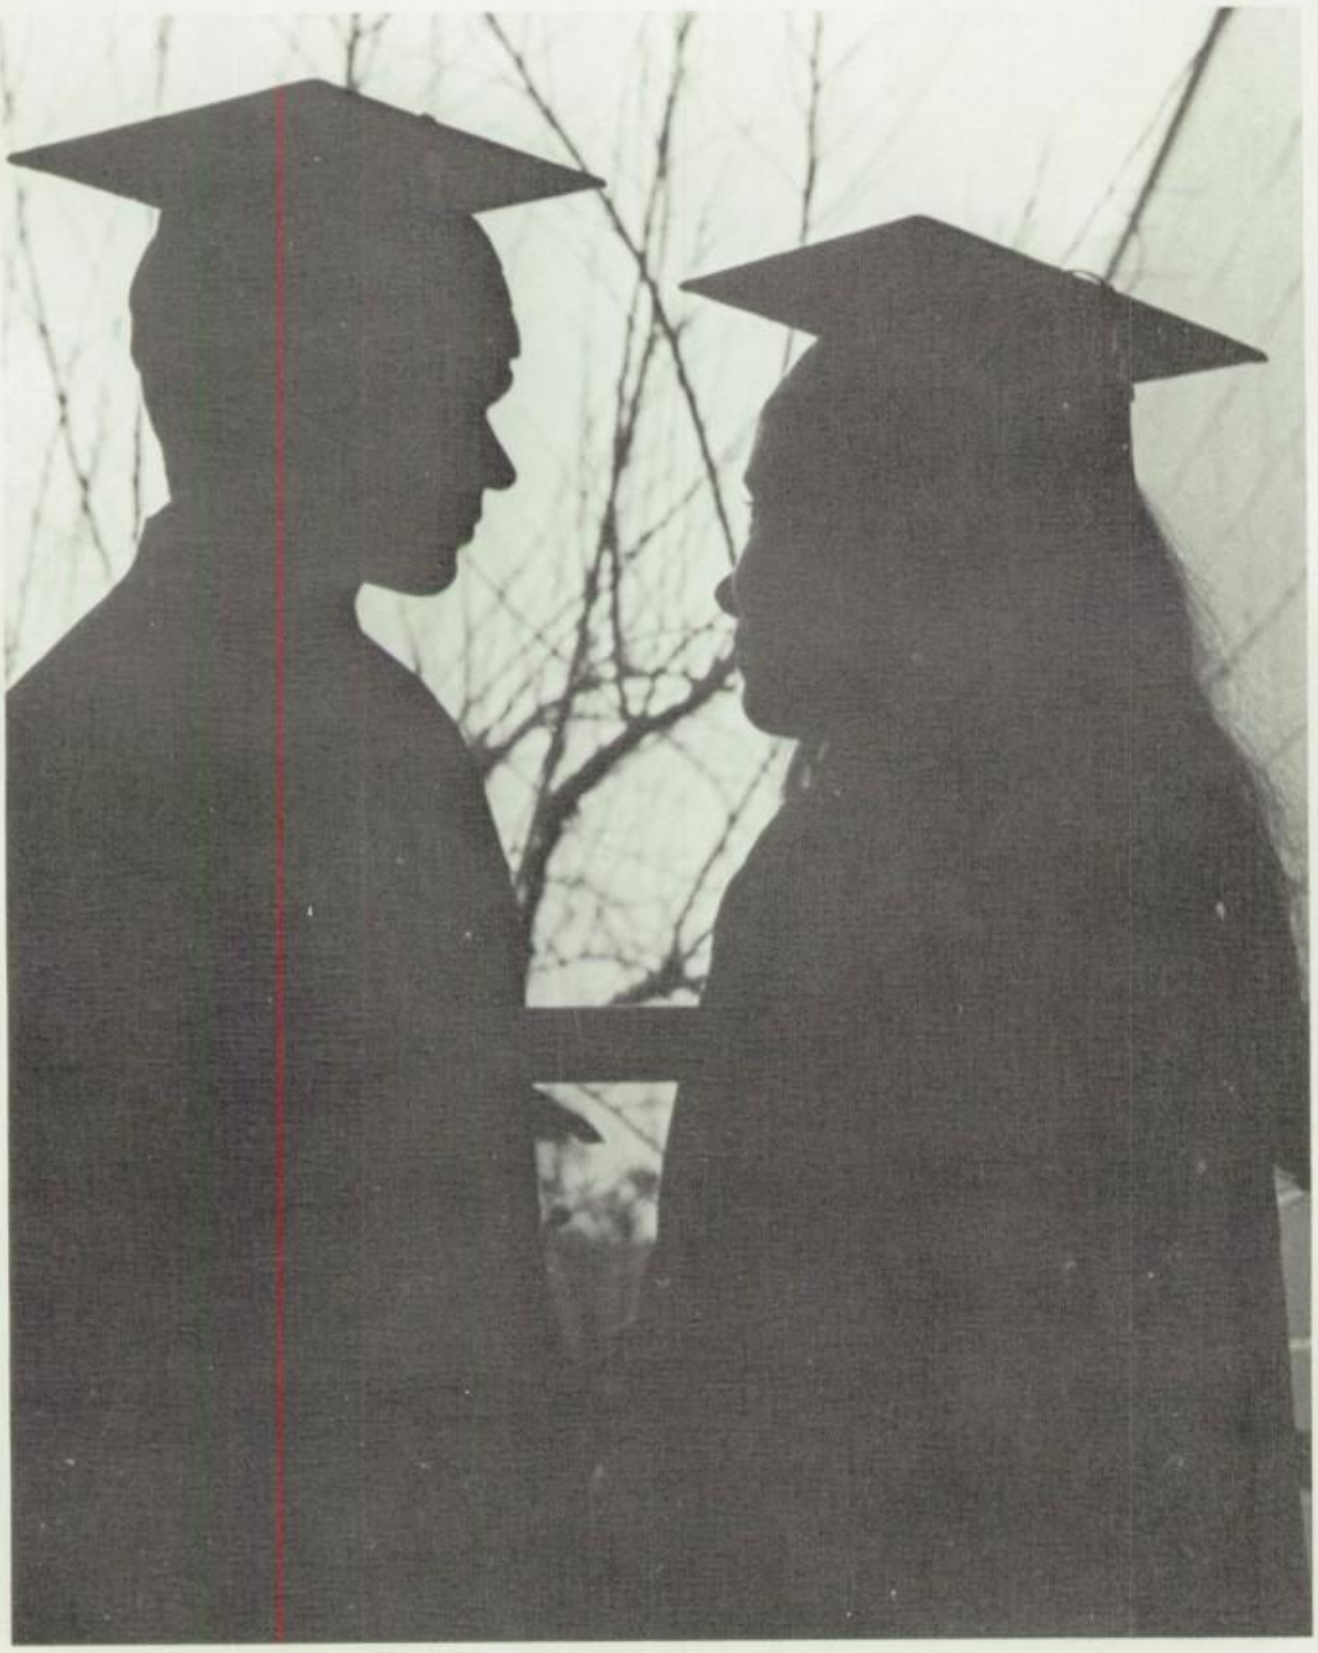
In Memory of Dave Lidstrom and Greg Jackson



If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song. And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.

When all the world is young, lad,
And all the trees are green;
And every goose a swan, lad,
And every lass a queen;
Then hey for boot and horse, lad,
And round the world away;
Young blood must have its course, lad,
And every dog his day.

When all the world is old, lad,
And all the trees are brown;
And all the sport is stale, lad,
And all the wheels run down:
Creep home, and take your place there,
The spent and maimed among:
God grant you find one face there
You loved when all was young.

If

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good nor talk too wise;

If you can dream-and not make dreams your master;
If you can think-and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with triumph and disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with wornout tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on";

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings-nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run—
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it . . . . .
